SKY UTE CASINO RESORT BETS ON KOOLCONNECT TO UPGRADE THEIR GUESTS' IN-ROOM EXPERIENCE

One of Colorado's finest attractions wins big with new HD in-room entertainment and interactive services solution from the industry leader

IGNACIO, CO – MAY 19, 2010 – The Southern Ute Indian Tribe is well-known for creating a spectacular Las Vegas-style experience at their Sky Ute Casino Resort in Ignacio, CO. And now, they've raised the bar again by enhancing the in-room environment of their spectacular hotel by adding KoolConnect's Intrigue™ High Definition Video On-Demand and Interactive TV solution.

“Although we opened our hotel in November, 2008, we waited to select an in-room entertainment system until we found the right solution,” said Sky Ute Casino Resort Executive Director of Operations Travis Garlick. “Everything about our resort is extraordinary and it was hard to find something that delivered the unique guest experience that we wanted to offer. KoolConnect, however, turned out to be the perfect fit. They created a customized solution that is unique to Sky Ute Casino Resort and the digital features included in the system make it easy for us to excite our guests by highlighting all of our offerings and amenities in HD right in the room.”

The 140-room hotel is just part of the extensive resort offerings of this spectacular facility in the beautiful countryside of southwest Colorado. In addition to beautiful accommodations, Sky Ute Casino Resort also features a 45,000 square-foot casino, five restaurants with cuisine ranging from gourmet fare to comfort foods, extensive meeting space, live entertainment and more.

“Sky Ute's guests are certainly going to enjoy the ability to watch HD movies that are still in theatres in the comfort of their hotel room,” said Dave Tahan, KoolConnect's CEO. “But what's really special is how we were able to give Sky Ute the ability to digitize their resort information and even interactively communicate with their guests while in-room and inform them about special offers, attractions and promotions. Our solution is perfect for resorts like Sky Ute with so much to offer their guests and we are thrilled to welcome them to our portfolio of spectacular properties,” added Tahan.

Sky Ute Casino Resort will debut their new High Definition Video On-Demand and interactive TV solution in their hotel on May 20th.
